NEW YORK.-H. M. Lachtrocker, New York City: Special cards announcing very important business caused an unusually large attendance at the last meeting of Gilsa Post, No. 264, on the evening of Oct. 28. As nothing special had come up in previous meetings, this, of course, resulted in many inquiries as to the nature of the important business. These inquiries found no tangible explanation until the regular business of the Post had been disposed of and an adjournment seemed close at hand, when, suddenly, the Sentinel announced that 15 members of the Post wished to gain admittance. This annonncement caused all eyes to be turned toward the door, where stood 15 late members of the 20th N. Y., bearing between them a mystery nattily covered with the emblem of "The Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave." They advanced to the center of the room, and as two comrades unvalled the mystery Past Commander Chr. Heintz, on behalf of the boys of the 20th, in a very appropriate speech presented to the Post a pyramic completely covered with rolles obtained on the buttielield of Anticiam during the 20th's late sojourn commutes. The relies are incomerable, containts almost everything, from a minie-ball to a 12-pound shot, even an old jackknife, which brings back memories of the times when hardtack and salt pork were delicacies; also, a bass-drum stick, the strap on which is hard and wrinkled, probably with the sweat of the poor fellow, who, with a light heart, best time for the boys under McClellan on that memorable 17th day of September, 1862, for the last time. Commander Alting, of the Post, in a few well-chosen remarks thanked the donors, complimenting them on the comradelike feeling they had the Post adjourned the members of the 20th invited as to participate with them in a supper at Comrade Oeser's Hall in the vacinity. events of the evening here was the eloquent address of Comrade P. H. Steffens, inte Chaptana of the 52d N. Y., concerning the gift. He dwelt especially upon those relies which brought back memories of the battlefield, and at the conclusion of his remarks there were many glistening eyes In the assemblage. The members of the 20th who made this presentation are Theodore Baumback, Adolph Feelmer, Adolph Becker, James Freyvogle, Chr. Heintz, John Lechtrecker, I. P. Heintz,

We have received the History and Roster of J. C. and contains, besides the rosters and histories of the Post and its auxiliaries, a biographical sketch of James Cuibertson McCoy, in honor of whom the Post is named. It also contains the Constitution and By-Laws of the Post. Its officers for 1887 are as follows: Commander, Andrew Schwarz; S.V. C., A. G. Chapman; J. V. C., C. H. Devennish: Chap, Dr. N. S. Smith; Surg., Dr. P. E. Blesch; G. D., H. P. Thompson; O. G., G. B. Grubb; Adj't, John H. Rees; S. M., Frank H. Wylie; Q. M., S. W. Gale; Q. M. S., L. B. Drake; Outside G., David Bowen I. No. 50, Woman's Relief Corps No. 80, and O, B, Gardner Camp, S. of V., No. 93, of this place, are working in larmony. The ladies lately held a social apple-dampling and chicken-pic rally, by which they noted $25. Not many weeks after, when the Post met in their hali at a regular meeting, they were surprised to find the hall meety carpeted and new furniture placed in position; al done by their noble and loyal friends—the ladies of James Price Relief Corps. It was a complete surprise. The Post Commander, upon entering the hall, stopped and gazed about in surprised aste ment. The bare floor, which had so often been a source of discomfort, was micely covered from sight with bright-colored earpet, and the old furniture which had looked so engy, was gone, and in its place stood desk and stands of bright and new sur face. The altar was tastefully arranged. The adies left us alone to enjoy our complete surprise committee appeared to announce the gift of these loving wives, mothers, sisters and daughters. We were left alone with our happy thoughts. I has been said that a woman cannot keep a secret, but it has been proven that these ladies did this noble work without apprising their husbands. The Sons of Veterans are mustering in recruits. real work is just being comprehended. Past Commander P. P. Ingalis, of our Post, has been appointed Assistant Inspector for the County of Franklin. He enlisted in the 60th Ohio when but 15 years of age Richard Allen Post, Elyria, opened their new Post rooms recently with a grand entertainment. The rooms are four in number, comprising a reception, ladies' and gentlemen's rooms, and the large hall or Post room. These are all handsomely decorated with artistic designs in wall-paper, and connected with each other by sliding doors. The woodwork is of muliogany fluish, having a rich appearance, and blending harmoniously with the wall decorations. The Post-room floor is covered with a rich pattern of Erussels carpet, a gift of the Woman's Relief Corps. In the center stands the altar, the supports of which are four upright cannon, finished in gift, and relieved by a pile of shot in the center. On the altar is a large, elegantly bound Bible, a present from Mr. F. O. Williams, o the Elyrin bookstore. At the south end of the room is the Communder's chair, with the presentation colors on either side, and above a portrait of Capt. Richard Allen, in whose memory the Post is The portrait is in oil, and was painted by Mr. W. F. Parsons, the picture and frame being i joint present from the artist and his brother, Mr A.F. Parsons. Over the Senior Vice Commander's chair, at the north end of the room, is a lifelike of the fanous Logan, executed in crayou by Miss Ella Enger, and presented by her to the Post. A portrait of the martyred Garfield, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith, is suspende over the Junior Vice Commander's chair, on the east side of the room, on the opposite side being the Chaplain's chair, with the Post's charter above. A portrait of the old hero, Gen. Grant, a gift from Fast Department Commander A. L. Conger, Akron, hangs over the Quartermaster's desk. A large fan of artistic design, a present from the Woman's Relief Corps, adoras one corner, and a number of rifles in a ruck furnishes another corner of the room. The chairs are finished to correspond with the woodwork, and were made at the factory of Mr. A. H. Mooers, in Ridgeville. The rooms are supplied with all modern conveniences and have good ventilation. It is safe to state that, without exception, Richard Alien Post has one of the cociest halis in the State. At 8:20 Commander J. F. Allen commenced the program of the evening with a few appropriate remarks, and then called upon Mr. and Mrs. Park Wooster and Mr. Harry Davis who entertained the nadience with an instrumental selection upon the flute, burp and mandolin, the performance being heartily applauded. Mrs. C. H. poolittic followed with an interesting synopsis of the history and labors of the Ladies' Aid Society in Elyria during the progress and up to the close of the rebellion. Miss Mand Townsend then sang a popular ballad, "The Milwaukee Fire," in a most feeling manner. Comrade Early, of Col-bin, was next called upon, and responded briefly in an currest and sympathetic speech, which be-tokened the Christian and the soldier. The Davis

Brothers followed with a humorous song, and were called back by an encore. Mrs. Emnia D. Lemmon then recited a patingtic poem, giving an old soldier's reasons why he would not forsake a faithful wife and a life of poverty for the comfort and case of the Soldiers' Home. This talented closutionist rendered the poem in her well-known able manner, and it was acknowledged by merited applause. Hon Geo G. Washburn was then called upon. He responded in a few remarks appropriate to the organizations of the G.A.R. and auxillary association, emphasizing the necessity of the fare of needy veterans and their families. Mesers,

Harry Davis and Charles Pike then sang an Irish comic song, which had to be repeated in response to an emphatic encore. Prof Recfy followed with a tribute of praise and respect to the country's patriots, its remarks being interesting and well-timed. Mr. and Mrs. Wooster and Mr. Harry Davis again favored the audience with an instrumental scicetion, which was well received and heartily encored.

sang and were brought back twice, their imitation of the hagpipes being a most pleasing effort. Prof. Parker followed with a brief address, then a recitation by Mrs. Emma D. Lemmon, an instrumenta piece by Mr. and Mrs. Wooster and Mr. Harry Davis (encored), a speech by Judge Hinman in his usual facctions style, in the course of which he "brought down the house" by remarking that it was a great relief to have the Woman's Relief Corps. The entertainment concluded by the Davis Brothers singing the "Suwance River."

The Post at Alton is preparing a new hall for its exclusive use. It is nearly ready to occupy. Baird Post, Patuskala, is in a flourishing condition. At a recent meeting 13 recruits were mus-tered in, and more applications on file. Its mempership is now 108, At a recent Campfire of Burrows Post, West Jet ferson, Department Commander Putnam, Col. J. E. Stewart, and Quartermaster-General Ira W. Wallace were present. The speech of the evening was made by Rev. A. B. Mixon.

About 60 members of Old Guard Post and Relief Corps, Dayton, and a number of friends of Commander Henry Kissinger recently surprised him at his residence. The event was the 20th anniversacy of Mr. and Mrs. Kissinger's wedding, and was commemorated by presenting the host and hostess a full dinner set of handsome china. Mr. Kissinger was also the recipient of an elegant G.A.R. charm from Comrade Schaeffer,

A. E. Barthwick, Portland: Friday, Oct. 7, was a red-letter day for three Posts of this city-George Wright, No. 1, Garfield, No. 3, and Lincoln Post, No. 4, that being the date of their house warming on removal to their new G.A.R. ball, corner First and Taylor streets, the building and fitting up of which, in the bands of the Hall Committee-Comrades Pierce, Powers and DuBois-had been looked forward to with much pleasurable expectation by the members generally. Our new home now occupies the entire floor of the third story, 59 by 100 feet, the main hall being 44 by 60 feet, besides which is a smaller hall for the Woman's Relief Corps, reliring rooms, ante-room, smeking-room, and properly rooms for the different Posts and societies, all tastefully decorated and painted; the Plainfield recently with 26 charter members and the following officers: Commander, Nelson Runyon; S. Oregon. The hall was closely filled on the night of opening with members, their families and friends, S. V. Dep't Commander Z. W. Christopher presided. Comrade Rev. Clapp, of the Congregational Church, offered prayer. Comrade F . Arnold gave a few words of welcome, followed by music by Miss Pinkie Scars, a pleasing piano solo. Capt, Woodruff, C. S., U. S. A., and a member of the G.A.R., gave us some new thoughts on an old theme to old soldiers—"The aims and object of the G.A.R." The Captain is an orator of fine repute, in this his present home, and the boys always like to turn out when it is known he is to speak; they are sure to hear something good and new. After the literary exercises came the clearing away of the chairs, and a well-waxed floor was soon made glossy under the inspiration of the music and the hour. We start off with a new lease of life, as it were, and recruiting is active and competition is generous among the Posts. A dozen or ore recruits have stready joined our ranks, and interest in Grand Army work in Oregon is by no means on the wane.

The project of erecting a large G.A.R. hall in Pittsburg, to be owned by the several local Posts ntly, is at present receiving considerable discussion by courades of that city. The idea is to have a large hall, centrally located, where the Posts can meet weekly and the members of all Posts assemble Adam Loccher, John Klein, John Moeneh, Aunightly, and at the same time make the hall a source gust Markofsky, J. > DEAR COMRADE: I was much gratified to find as your leading topic of last week one that I have very any times thought of, and that I hope, now that it has been publicly proposed, will be actively urged until it is accomplished—that is the erection of a Grand Army Temple. It would not only be a home for all the Posts of the city as you suggest, but it ould be something a great deal more important. When the Grand Army ceases to exist as an organization it will remain only in history; but if it were to creet in this city an imposing temple, it would leave behind it a monument to remind future generations not only of the great work accomplished by the Union soldiery in the greatest war of modern times, but of the equally important work of the veterans in preserving the virtues of "Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty." In such a building could be gathered old batteflags and other war relies, which would add greatly in preserving in the community the memories of the war, and keeping alive the principles for which the Union veterans fought. I suggest that the city Posts at once appoint committees of say three comrades each to meet together and consider the practicability of undertaking the

> Yours, in F., Cand L. SAMUEL HARPER, Department Commander, The project is meeting with general favor, and it is not at all unlikely that the Posts of Pittsburg and Allegheny City will shortly take steps to erect such a hall. This subject should be broached by the comrades in every city and town where there are severai Posts, as a large hall can be made a very profitable venture and be continually a source of revenue to the Posts. As the time is rapidly approxeiting when the weaker Posts must necessarily consolidate with the larger ones, numerically, this subject should receive immediate attention. The Posts of Philadelphia, who have time and again spoken of the subject, should especially start "the

III. All officers-elected and appointed-having been regularly installed, their predecessors are hereby relieved. IV. The four days' session of the Convention was characterized by business methods, and by prompt and decisive action on all questions arising.

The records of the last administration prove it to have been an exceedingly prosperous one. June 30, 1887, there were 25 Permanent and two Provisional Departments, containing 1,358 Corps, with an aggregate membership of 50,000-a gain of 504 Corps and 13,000 members during the year. The National Treasurer reported a balance on hand including supplies) of $11,190.36-a gain of $3,990.68 during the year, with no liabilities. By the united efforts of all members the record of the coming year may be equally gratifying. To that end we look with confidence. The following decisions have been received from the Secretary of the Convention: 1. The system of balloting, as recommended in

2. The salary of National Secretary was increased to $50 per month-$600 per year, and that of National Treasurer to $300 per year. 3. The ratio of representation to National Convention is one in 500 (instead of one in 300, as before,) at the close of the fourth quarter (Dec. 31); with such additional provisions as are already con-

15. Convention voted to contribute $100 from the National Treasury for decoration of Union soldiers' graves in the ecmeteries and on the battlefields around Richmond, and that Corps be given an opportunity to contribute for the same purpose. 16. All orders for supplies from Departments must be made on requisitions furnished by the National Treasurer (free) for that purpose. (These will be issued as soon as price list is revised.) 17. The present system of blank books is continued to preserve uniformity, but the expense of Corps supplies may be reduced by issuing smallersized books to small Corps.

18. The name and address of Department Treasurer must be printed on all Department stationery. 19. Department Instituting and Installing Officers report quarterly. 20. President and Secretary of Provisional De partments are made voting members of the National Convention. 21. Detached Corps in States having no organized Department may be represented in National Convention by the President or Senior Vice-President. 22. The number "2" is removed from the title of Potomac Relief Corps, Washington, D. C. It is hereafter to be known as Potomac Relief Corps, W. R. C., auxiliary to the Department of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic. 23. The inspection of all Corps is ordered during October and November, except Massachusetts,

2. Department Inspectors will consolidate the Assistant Inspectors' reports on Form D, foot up the columns, sign and forward two copies to the Department President, who will prove their correctness, attest the same by her signature, and forward one copy to the National Inspector. 3. Department Presidents are charged to have the inspection thorough. The Ritual must be exemplified, complete order of business carried out, and all books and records carefully examined. The aspecting Officer will report the condition of the Corps, as she finds it, and as the work is extremely important, only competent and experienced persons should be assigned to do it. 4. Department Presidents will, upon the nomination of the Department Inspector, appoint as many Assistant Inspectors as are necessary. The National President will, upon nomination of the National Inspector, appoint an Assistant National Inspector in each Department, whose duty it shall be (under the direction of the National Inspector) to examine the books and records of the several Department officers, reporting the same to the Na-

By direction of the Convention, Memorial Service (in accordance with the Service Book) will be held in every Corps, in memory of Mrs. Lois F. S. Holbrook, first National Instituting and Installing Officer, at the first regular meeting after receipt of this General Order, and the charter of all Corps be draped for 30 days.

Holbrook early identified herself with the work of our Order, as a valued member of Forsyth Corps, No. 1, Tolcdo, O. Possessed of many loveable traits, a gentie and most amiable disposition which characterized her every effort, she commanded respect from all, and won the admiration of strangers as well as friends.

Among her many works was the institution of the Departments of Michigan and Illinois, where she will ever be remembered and her name held in sacred veneration. Death has claimed her for its own, and while we mourn our loss, let us not forget 'tis her heavenly gain. IX. It is a source of much pleasure to report the CORPS NEWS, success of the Woman's Relief Corps and the special pension legislation for the women nurses of the war they have in hand, and which received the enthusiastic indersement of the 21st National Encampment at St. Louis, Hon. James Tanner (the Corp'l Tanner of soldier eloquence) lectures this season under the auspices of the Star Lyceum Bureau, on "Soldier Life-Grave and Gay," "A Ginnee at Mormonism," and "Standards and Standard-bearers," Although he left both legs on the battlefield, he is always on time and has never missed an appointment.

LOYAL WOMEN OF THE NORTH. Comrade Oscar F. Avery, Co. B, 11th Mich., paid an eloquent tribute to the loyal women of the Union and their working during and since the war, in re-sponse to the sentiment, "The Loyal Women of the North," at a recent Campure of Post No. 165, Department of Illinois, at Pontiac, Livingstone Co. As his words bear upon the work that the Woman's Relief Corps are doing in order to secure some just pension legislation to the women nurses of field and hospital, we give the concluding portion of his admirable address: "While our sisters remained at home they were not idle, and had you been, as I have, through some of the great storehouses of the Sanitary or Christian Commissions in the cities of the South, you would have some idea of the aggregate of the individual efforts of Northern women during the war, God bless them! The army hospital would have been a crude and barren place, indeed, had it not been for the supplies kept pouring into them in constant streams from the laps of the loyal women of the North. And, though it may be true that army Surgeons, Hospital Stewards and commissioned officers generally diverted many of these supplies from their proper channel, yet enough reached the wounded soldier to do a vast amount of good. At least the doctors could not eat nor drink the bandages nor lint supplied, "fiber by fiber, and thread by thread," by our sweet sisters of the North "And then the glorious patriots that went as nurses to the wounded. Who that has ever seen, as I have, men brought from the battlefield, after a month's campaign, dirty, ragged, footsore and wounded, into the wards of a hospital, and there been clothed in clean linen, and their wounds tary; Mary A. Logan, Washington, D. C.; Clara | dressed by these sweet sisters of charity, but will forever say, God bless the women of the North."

DEPARTMENT OF OHIO. DEAR TRIBUNE: Last week the Hendquarters Department of Ohio were enlivened by the happy presence of Mrs. Cora Day Young, National Senior Vice-President and Chairman of the Executive Board. Mrs. Young spent two days in Zanesville, and all the ladies of the office were cheered and benefited by her wise counsels and lofty and praiseworthy ambition for the success of the Woman's Grand Army people we all say come again

Mrs. Eliza D. Harmon, Aid, Tiffin, reports the institution of Sykes Corps, No. 192, Chicago Junetion, with 22 charter members. Officers: President, Adalina H. Sigourney; S.V.-P., Sophia A. Miller; J.V.-P., Henrietta J. Franklin; Sec., Flora ministrations of woman. Remarks were made by A. Snyder; Treas., Elizabeth A. Crooks; Con., Orpha A. Teagarden; G., Amanda Bramley; A. C., Louisa A. Parker; A. G., Sarah E. Bishop. The Installing Officer states that these ladies had familiarized themselves with the Rules and Regulations of the W.R.C., and were well posted concerning our methods of work, and undoubtedly we will hear of commendable results. Nov. 2 was a day long to be remembered by the G.A.R. and citizens of Bybalia, Union County. On that day our Department Chaplain, Mrs. S. Allie Shuler, with the efficient aid of Misses Lena Robb and Anna White, of Marysville, instituted Mitchell Corps, No. 193. Members of the Post were in waiting and escorted the ladies to the hotel for dinner, after which the Corps was instituted with 32 charter members. Mitchell Post en masse and Sons of Veterans attended the grand banquet, in which two or three hundred participated; then all repaired to the church to witness the impressive installation service. Addresses were made by Mrs. Louisa B. Brooks, Corps President; Comrade Win. Haines, Mrs. Shuler and Capt. John Hobensack. Officers: President, Louisa B. Brooks; S. V.-P., Mina Shirk; J. V.-P., Margaret D. Haines; Sec., Anise Wright; Treas., Kate Acton; Chap., Mary Haines; Con., Jennie A. Davis; G., Mary A. Baldwin; A. C., Allie Lingrel; A. G., Mary C. Har-

Seven officers of Old Guard Corps, No. 161, accompanied Mrs. Kate E. Mull, Assistant Institu-ting and Installing Officer, from Dayton to Areanum Nov. 3 for the purpose of organizing Roser Corps, No. 198, and were cordially met and welcomed at the depot by the Commander of Roser Post and 37 ladies ready and anxious to be organized as Roser Post's auxiliary. Mrs. Hattie Robinson, Department Aid, and Miss Ella Lyon, Conductor, ably assisted Mrs, Mull, and the comrades showered many deserved compliments on the beautifully-rendered installation service. Henry Cope Post, of Wellsville, assisted by their Relief Corps, No. 82, have just closed a fair and festival, which netted $150. Thus fortified for the Winter's work of charity, the G.A.R. and W.R.C. of Wellsville will maintain the record which they have won in the past of faithfully caring for the soldier and his loved ones. On the occasion of Gov. Foraker's visit to Xenia ast week the ladies of Lewis Corps, No. 29, successfully managed lunch tables and supper, and netted $155 with which to establish a relief fund. The Governor complimented the ladies on their cooking and their charity work.

Mrs. Hannah M. Leslie, Department Secretary nspected Dan Brown Corps at Duncan Falls Fri day afternoon, Oct. 28; Hughes Corps, No. 78, in the evening of the sameday; Dick Cheatham Corps, No. 63, at Beverly, Saturday, 29th ult.; Bueil Corps, No. 70, at Marietta, Monday, Oct. 31, and C. B. Gates Corps, No. 69, at Harmar on the same evening. She was cordially received by every member composing these Corps, and returned feeling that the sunshine which had been cast over her pathway whilst a sojourner with her sisters in the cause would never be darkened by one cloud of regret. The last of a series of socials given by Mart Arm-strong Corps, at Memorial Hall, Lima, O., opened with a concert of vocal and instrumental music, Mrs. Dr. Thrift, Department Inspector, directing the program. Refreshments and dancing foilowed.

-Laura Wheeler, Corps Correspondent Patchin Corps, No. 7, Burton, O., Anna Fowler, President, received a visit from the Senior Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer of Welcome Corps, No. 157, at a recent meeting. The visitors were greatly gratified over the fine exemplication of the Ritual by Patchin Corps.

Henry Lincoln Relief Corps, No. 92, Oberlin, O., found Lincoln Post in a general rejoicing over the new G.A.R. Hall on the evening of Oct, 19. Mrs. Rosa A. Cole, President, presented, in behalf of the Corps, a handsome Bible to the Post, The Corps participated in the formal dedication a week later, and on election day, Nov. 8, served refreshments from 11 a. m. to 9, p. m.; benefit Corps fund. Robbins Relief Corps, No. 73, Upper Sandusky, O., attended the installation services of Crawford Corps, No. 197, Carey, O., conducted by Mrs. Jennie D. Cramer, Assistant Instituting and Installing Officer, by invitation of the new Corps. Mrs. Cramer's work was nobly done, and the visiting ladies royally entertained; the comrades, particularly the Quartermaster, doing all in their power to make the occasion a memorable one. Officers, as reported by Mrs. Harry W. Peters, Corresponding Secretary, Robbins Corps: President, Emma Dickerson; S. V.-P., Tillie Gearhart; J. V.-P., Hattie Gregg; Sec., Ella Gillett; Treas., Miss Ella J. Gibbs; Chap., Margaret Renolds; Con., Ella M. Herndon; G., Dora Shepherd.

Mrs. Sarah Hayward, President of Custer Corps, No. 136, Conneaut, inspected Giddings Corps, No. 171, at Jefferson, Mrs. Esther E. Howland, President. "Her presence," writes a Corps member, seemed angelic. Her beautiful, unassuming manner made us feel at ease, and the gentle, lady-like way in which she pointed out our faults won our confidence and esteem. We had one of the most delightful sessions ever held, and I think we can now go on our way rejoicing." The Corps gave the Post a reception, when, after a sumptuous repast, Mrs. Howland presented Custer Post with a lovely silk banner. Commander S. I. Coon accepted for the Post. On the afternoon of the 17th ult., whilst Ransom Reed Corps, No. 102, was in session, a delegation, onsisting of the President and 28 members from Harry Scribner Corps, No. 119, Plain City, was announced. After saluting, Corps No. 102 proceeded in usual manner until the close, when, very unexpectedly to the visiting members, quite a collation was in store for them, consisting of all the luxuries of the season; hugely enjoyed, as riding a distance of 12 miles lent keenness to their appetites. On Grand Army Day in Cincinnati, Oct. 27, all the Corps of the city united in making it a grand success, assisting in the magnificent decorations of street, hall and procession. The wagons represented scenes from camp, field and hospital; many Corps ladies in earriages appeared in the proces-Comrade O. W. Evans and wife, of Giddings Post

MRS, NICHOLS INSTALLED. DEAR TRIBUNE: On the evening of Oct. 28 Seward Post rooms were filled with visitors to witness the installation of Mrs. Sarah C. Nichols as National Instituting and Installing Officer. At about 9 o'clock Mrs. Birdsall, President of Seward Corps, called the meeting to order, and Mrs. Sarah C. the power? Please tell us.—There Cavalry 8, 1862. Mink, Department President, accompanied by her staff, was formally escorted to the chair and presided during the rest of the ceremonies. After the Special Order of the National President was read, delegating Mrs. Mink to install Mrs. Nichols in her office, Mrs. Nichols was escorted to the altar, and there took the solemn obligation of the office of National Instituting and Installing Officer. After a few appropriate remarks by Mrs. Mink, Mrs. Nichols responded with much feeling, declaring that the occasion was one of the happiest of her life. Mrs. Mink then alluded to the fact that she had four times been installed in office by Mrs. Nichols, three times as President of Root Corps and once as Department President. A beautiful basket of flowers, the gift of Department Senior Vice Mrs. Imogene L. Guion was brought forward and was gratefully received by Mrs. Nichols with a few words. Mrs. Carpenter, Department Secre-Relief Corps. To this special favorite of Zanesville | tary, was called on for remarks, and reviewed the recent Convention of the Order at St. Louis. The Commander of the Post, J. Burt Graves, was forced to respond to a call for a speech, and at the carnest solicitation of the ladies gave a poem portraying ministrations of woman. Remarks were made by Dr. C. B. Nichols, who was introduced as "Mrs. Nichols's husband," and who spoke of himself as a martyr to the cause. He spoke cloquently of the work done by women during and since the war, and his remarks were enthusiastically received. After partaking of a generous collation the exercises were deciared over. It is a source of great gratification to Auburnians that Mrs. Nichols receives the recognition and distinction from the National President that she so eminently deserves. -Emma J.
